1. almost monday – “come on come on”

For fans of: lovelytheband, ROLE MODEL and BENEE

San Diego alt-pop trio almost monday combine a variety of influences ranging from the 1975 to the Beatles in their song “come on come on” and throughout their discography. The dancey new release features surf-rock basslines and vibrant synths for a summer feel. This track follows the band’s debut tracks “broken people” and “parking lot view.” Frontman Dawson Daugherty shares that the group hope “to give everybody that feeling of dancing alone in your bedroom, where you’re not self-conscious at all—you just feel completely free to be yourself.”
