Burbank, Calif. (March 24, 2015) – Jordan Fisher has inked a recording contract with DMG’s Hollywood Records, it was announced today by Dani Markman, Director A&R, DMG. Fisher sings, and plays the piano, guitar and bass. He describes his music style as Pop/R&B, and has recorded impressive covers of “The Christmas Song” and John Legend’s “Ordinary People” on his YouTube channel.

Fisher’s talent is boundless. In addition to writing and performing music, Fisher is a professional actor and dancer. He is set to reprise his role of “Seacat” this summer on Disney Channel’s Original Movie “Teen Beach 2.” As an alumnus of the Red Mountain Theatre Company (based in Birmingham, Ala.), Fisher starred in “Hairspray,” “Dreamgirls” and “The Music Man,” among many other shows. Fisher has had the recurring role of “Jacob” in ABC Family’s “The Secret Life of an American Teenager.”

Said Jordan Fisher, “I’m elated to be a part of the Hollywood Records family. The love and support everyone has for me here is incredible and beyond inspiring. I can’t thank everyone enough, and I can’t wait to share my music with the world!”

Mio Vukovic, Senior Vice President, A&R and Creative, DMG, added, “I’m thrilled to have Jordan join us. The vibe and energy he brings is infectious, and will lend itself to a terrific and soulful sound.”

Added Dani Markman, Director A&R, DMG, “Words can’t express how excited I am to welcome Jordan to the Hollywood Records family. Jordan is an extraordinarily gifted singer, writer and musician. There is no doubt that he is on his way to a hugely successful career and I am thrilled for the opportunity to be on this journey with him. He has so much soul and passion, and is going to make significant contributions to the musical landscape in the months and years to come.”

Fisher’s debut album is due next year on Hollywood Records.
